July 20, 1918.

Hon. George E. Chamberlain,
United States Senate,
Washington, D. C.

My dear Senator:

Your letter of the 13th instant, and enclosed memorandum from the Adjutant General's Office, relative to Negro troops, has been received. It has been of great service to our committee, informing us authoritatively concerning the situation.

The Central Committee of Negro College Men, already indebted to you for your interest and aid in the formation of the 17th Provisional Training Camp, at Fort Des Moines, wish me to express their appreciation of this additional help.

We know that you will be glad to learn that Howard University has been chosen for the six weeks Instruction Camp of the Student Army Training Corps in the colored schools and colleges.

Again thanking you for your favor, I beg to remain

Very sincerely yours,

General Secretary.
